Website Privacy Policy

Effective Date: November 15, 2026

Overview

This Website Privacy Policy describes how BelRed Family Medicine PLLC, doing business as Advanced Family Medicine ("AFM"), handles information collected through www.afmllc.us. It does not replace our Notice of Privacy Practices, which governs your medical information, or our Washington Consumer Health Data Privacy Policy.

Information We Collect

- Information you provide voluntarily, such as when you call, email, or use a linked online tool.
- Standard technical information automatically recorded by our web host (such as IP address, browser type, and pages visited) for security and site operation.

Cookies and Tracking

Our website does not use advertising cookies, analytics, or social media tracking pixels. If this changes, we will update this policy before doing so and will not place tracking technologies on pages where they could disclose health information.

Third-Party Services Linked From Our Site

Some features are provided by third parties under their own privacy policies and, where they handle PHI on our behalf, under HIPAA business associate agreements:

- Online appointment requests: FollowMyHealth patient portal.
- Online bill payment: InstaMed.
- Electronic release of records to patients: Sync.MD.
- Maps and directions: Google Maps. Social media: our Facebook page and blog.

Email and Electronic Communication

Regular email is not encrypted. Please do not send detailed medical information by email; use the FollowMyHealth patient portal. See our Patient Portal & Electronic Communication Policy.

Children

Our website is not directed to children under 13, and we do not knowingly collect their information online.

Security and Accessibility

We use reasonable safeguards to protect information sent to us. We aim to make our website accessible to people with disabilities; if you have difficulty using any part of the site, call 425-453-6838 and we will help you.
